PROCLAMATION

Commanding all Papists, and all other persons who have been of the late Kings party, or his Sons, to repair unto their places of abode, and not to remove above five miles from the same.

Prebventing the danger that may be occasioned by the confluence of Papists, and other ill-affected persons at this time, to the great detriment of the Commonwealth: His Highness the Lord Protector, by, and with the Advice and Consent of his Privy Council, hath thought fit to Publish and Declare; and doth hereby Enjoyn and Require all and every Person and Persons, born within this Commonwealth, being Papists, or Popish Recusants, and all and every person and persons, who have at any time borne Arms against this Commonwealth, or adhered unto, or willingly assisted the Enemies thereof in the late War, not being now under Restraint, that they, and every of them do before the Twelfth day of May now next coming, (or if under Restraint, then within three dayes next after his or their Enlargement) repair unto his and their place of dwelling, where he or they usually heretofore made their common abode; and shall not at any time after, until the Tenth day of June next coming, pass, or remove above Five miles from thence. Or if such Papists, Popish Recusants, or other persons aforesaid, have no certain place of dwelling or abode within this Commonwealth; That then all and every such Papists, Popish Recusants, and other persons aforesaid, do, by the respective times herein before limited, repair to the places where he or they were born, or where the Father or Mother of such persons shall then be dwelling; and not at any time after, until the said Tenth day of June, pass, or remove above Five miles from thence, upon pain of being Deemed and Proceeded against as disturbers of the Publick Peace, and Enemies to the Commonwealth. And his Highness doth hereby strictly Charge and Command all Mayors, Justices of the Peace, Constables, and all other Officers, Civil and Military, to certifie unto his Highness Privy Council, the Names of all and every such Papist, Popish Recusant, or other persons aforesaid, as shall be found at any time, after the Twelfth day of May aforesaid, until the said Tenth day of June next, above Five miles from his, or their places of abode or habitation, or other the places herein before limited and appointed for him and them to repair unto; to the end they may be proceeded against as aforesaid.

Given at Whitehall the three and twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, 1659.

London, Printed by Henry Hills and John Field, Printers to His Highness, 1659.
And are to be sold at the seven Stars in Fleetstreet over against Dunstons Church.
